SA [redacted] then took the pad to the Alexandria Field

 On February 15, 1983, the pad was taken to the office of Assistant

 There, a member of the U. S. Attorney's staff suggested [redacted]

PERSONAL NOTIFICATION - ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Mr. Revell:

Francis Edward Tempil

This note concerns an interview of Edwin Wilson on December 28, 1983. Edwin Wilson, after indicating through his attorney that he was interested in talking to federal officials about information he possessed, ~~Wilson~~ furnished his version of some business matters and information concerning individuals with whom he associated in the past, viz., Waldo Dubberstein (deceased), [redacted] Thomas G. Clines and others.

b7C -1, -2

Interviewing officials noted there were significant discrepancies in the information that Wilson provided when compared to information provided by other key witnesses in various matters discussed. It is noted that Wilson advised he is being contacted by various media representatives, including a representative from CBS' Sixty Minutes. Wilson has not indicated whether or not he will appear on Sixty Minutes but interviewing officials were hopeful of interviewing Wilson when he returns to Alexandria, Virginia, on January 9, 1984 for resentencing in connection with his prior federal conviction in December, 1982.
